ORDER

In accordance with the memorandum opinion filed herein this date,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the City of St. Louis' damage claims for loss of gaming revenue due to the closure of the ADMIRAL for a period of time subsequent to the events of April 4, 1998, and for costs related to police and fire department personnel responding to the waterfront scene on April 4, 1998 be and are DENIED. As a matter of law, such purely economic damages are not recoverable absent damage to the City's property or proprietary interest. Robins Dry Dock & Repair Co. v. Flint, 275 U.S. 303 (1927).

Dated this 12th day of June, 2003.
